Announcing New Collaboration
With Avani+
Hua Hin,
Thailand

Hua Hin, Thailand – Bellewave announces its first foray into the world of luxury hotels with its launch at the VLCC Wellness & Aesthetic Beauty Medi-Spa at Avani+ Hua Hin Resort, Thailand.

This exciting new offering allows opportunity for Avani+ to provide guests with an unforgettable sensory experience at their spas, and to leave with a newly rejuvenated complexion. BelleWave's result-oriented skincare offers solutions for every skin type and body care in a luxurious and tranquil environment.

Located in the luxurious 196-room beach-front resort, Avani+ Hua Hin offers integrated wellness, beauty & weight management, immunity building and detoxification including spa and beauty treatments for body, skin and hair as well as aesthetic dermatology for you to drift away to a blissful escape packed with treats and treatments.

BelleWave is constantly inventing unique solutions that are clinically proven to give the best results in skincare, backed by vast scientific knowledge and significant research in the field of cellular skin therapy. Our products maintain the health and vitality of skin cells and preserve the overall youthful appearance with a formulation of active ingredients that can be easily absorbed by skin cells to improve their biological function.

With this partnership, hotel guests can now indulge in the luxurious spa settings of Avani+ while availing BelleWave's innovative, high precision treatments.
